NATIONAL CONFERENCE--- 2015

TRANSFORMATION OF INDIAN CONSTRUCTION THROUGH LEAN

LEAN PRINCIPLES TO TRANSFORM INDIAN CONSTRUCTION SECTOR

MUMBAI, INDIA - 6TH AND 7TH FEBRUARY, 2015

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Lean principles are positively impacting the construction sector globally. Significant improvements in operational efficiencies of construction organizations are being reported in USA, UK, Brazil, Scandinavia Australia and other countries. Academic and practitioner communities are engaged in furthering the use of Lean principles all around the world. Indian construction sector has been exploring the use of Lean principles but implementation has largely remained experimental. Projects are now available in India that showcase convincingly the benefits that can be reaped by the Indian construction sector through Lea However, Indian construction companies are yet to realize full potential of Lean principles on Indian projects. The theme of this conference is to explore avenues of Lean based transformation of the Indian construction sector. Simply stated the conference will bring together construction experts from India and across the globe to provide a roadmap for mainstream implementation of Lean principles in India.

In the inaugural conference, ILCE 2015 along the lines of IGLC and LCI Conferences will become an annual affair to forge forward on the Lean implementation agenda in India. The Conference will bring together academia who is teaching and training in Lean and the practitioners from the Industry to discuss a plethora of relevant topics, all focussing upon transformation of the Indian construction sector.
