

Indian Lean Construction Conference 2024

Lean Construction 4.0

Project Delivery for Resilient Infrastructure

WELCOME TO ILCC 2024

The Indian Lean Construction Conference – ILCC 2024 is to be held in Guwahati, India from 24th to 27th November 2024. This conference will continue the legacy of creating the confluence of lean community involving designers, constructors, operators, and researchers on platforms like workshop day, industry day, and academic conference days. The event will be held at the lush green campus of IIT Guwahati, which is situated in Guwahati – the gateway to the seven sister states of North East.

REGISTRATION

Registration/ attendance for any events of the “Indian Lean Construction Conference 2024 (ILCC2024)” implicitly assumes complete acceptance of the Terms and Conditions of ILCC2024:

Each attendee who is also an author of one or more papers/ posters accepted for the conference proceedings agrees to

1) Sign one Copyright Agreement Form for each paper/ poster (available under Submissions page) to be published as part of the Conference, and acknowledge that any paper or poster for which none of the authors have signed a copyright transfer form will not be published in the conference publications, nor will it be included in the conference schedule for presentation.

2) Undertake to ensure that at least one full conference days registration (26th or 27th November) is paid for every two papers/posters on which the attendee is listed as an author that is to be published and/or presented.

NOTE: Given limited seats for Workshop day, the First come, First served principle may apply for Registrations.
